HPE Optical Transceivers

Designed for customers that require the highest levels of connectivity, performance, and reliability from their HPE SAN.

Hewlett Packard Enterprise Optical transceivers offer improved performance and reliability, as well as compatibility with HPE storage and computing products.

HPE recommends using only HPE's high-quality Optical transceivers (SFPs) in HPE SAN environments. HPE transceivers are qualified to plug and play across the entire HPE SAN storage product family, including HPE 3PAR Storage Arrays, XP, and MSA platforms, as well as with all HPE Fiber Channel switches, routers, directors, HBAs, and blade server switches.

Features and benefits

- HPE quality, reliability and performance

  HPE transceivers are fully tested with HPE hardware products to provide outstanding performance and reliability.

- Complete HPE Fiber Channel product offering

  HPE offers a complete lineup of 32Gb, 16 Gb, 10 GbE, 8 Gb, and 4 Gb solutions in both short and longwave configurations, including a new HPE StoreFabric 16 Gb FC/10 GbE Converged SFP+. HPE offers QSFP form factor Fiber Channel transceivers that support 4x16Gb, 4x8Gb, and 4x10GbE.

- Quick and easy installation

  HPE transceivers install easily (plug and play) and are automatically recognized by hardware systems upon insertion.

- Diagnostic features

  HPE transceivers in combination with HPE storage platforms offer additional port diagnostics that aid in quickly identifying product faults.

- Recommended for HPE Port License Upgrades

  HPE Ports on Demand (PoD) customers that require port upgrade licenses should use HPE qualified transceivers in their expanded environment.
- HPE warranty and support

  HPE provides full warranty and support on HPE transceivers.
